STATEMENT OF RESPONSIBILITY AND RELEASE

- I understand the 2013 True to the Faith Pioneer Trek will be held in a wilderness setting. I also understand that we will be “roughing it”. The following items will be provided: nutritious food, restroom facilities and safe drinking water.
- I am a voluntary participant in this Trek, and I will accept full responsibility for my actions under all conditions. I also agree to aid other members of the group in behaving responsibly.
- I agree to abide by LDS standards. This means high standards of behavior, honesty and integrity. I will refrain from any actions that will endanger others or myself and will show charitable consideration to all participants and leaders on the Trek.
- I understand and appreciate that there are inherent risks involved in this Stake-sponsored Trek, which are beyond the control of the Trek Leaders, and I agree to personally assume such risks. The Trek Leaders cannot be held responsible for any injuries or expenses, costs and/or claims in connection with any injuries sustained. I agree to release the Nampa North Stake and its staff and Ward leaders from any and all claims of liability arising from my participation in the 2013 Trek.
- I (and/or my guardian) agree to accept full responsibility for any medical or related bills incurred which are not covered by my own insurance policy. Medical and dental benefits from the Church Activity Insurance Program may be available, but they are secondary to other insurance coverage and subject to limitations. Contact you bishop for plan coverage or a benefit claim form in case of an accident.

I agree to the above terms and declare that my above statements are complete and correct.

Nampa 16th/21st True to the Faith Trek 2013 Youth Commitment

As a participant in the Nampa 16th 21st Wards Pioneer Trek, an exciting and faith-building pioneer adventure awaits you. Trek will be challenging at times and fun at others. You will learn to appreciate the sacrifices of the pioneers, do things you may have never done before and have experiences you will never forget. Trek will give you the opportunities to:

1. Feel the Holy Ghost and gain a stronger testimony of the Savior.
2. Increase your understanding of the principles of Zion and learn how to better live them.
3. Make new friends and learn to love your trek family.
4. Learn to appreciate your own family even more.
5. Gain confidence in yourself and in your Heavenly Father.

By signing the following commitment, you agree to abide by all the rules of the trek and more importantly, you are pledging to have the very best possible trek experience and help others do the same.

"Let all the people of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and those who journey with them, be organized into companies, with a covenant and a promise to keep all the commandments and statutes of the Lord our God." (D&C 136:2)

1. I understand a heavy, fully loaded handcart will be pushed or pulled for many miles each day over rough terrain at high altitudes. I will help accomplish this task with my trek family to the best of my ability (accommodations will be made for participants with physical challenges).
2. I will condition myself physically prior to trek so that I will be prepared for the physical challenges of walking long distances while pushing and pulling the handcart.
3. I will honor the family to which I am assigned and will participate in all family chores and activities.
4. I will bring only the items on the Equipment List and promise not to bring any unapproved items.
5. I will conform to the dress code of this trek.
6. I will willingly help others who might be struggling and gratefully receive help from others when I need it.
7. I will take responsibility for my personal health by drinking enough water to stay hydrated, eating the food that is provided to keep up my energy, and seeking treatment for the hot spots on feet before they become blisters.
8. I agree to follow "No Trace Camping" rules to maintain the wilderness nature of the property, and I agree to avoid littering or causing damage of any kind to BLM land.
9. As a participant in this trek, I will accept full responsibility for my actions under all conditions, and I also agree to assist other members of the group in behaving responsibly.
10. I agree to abide by LDS standards. This means that high standards of honor, integrity, living of moral values and abstinence from profanity, alcohol, tobacco and harmful drugs are required of every participant in trek.
11. I will commit myself to participate fully in the whole trek experience.
